Case No.: 13-51589SLJ
Chapter 11
Date: January 23, 2014

JOINDER IN TPL'S OPPOSITION TO MOTION OF CREDITORS' COMMITTEE FOR ORDERS (1) DIRECTING THE APPOINTMENT OF A CHAPTER 11 TRUSTEE; AND (2)
DIRECTING THE DEBTOR AND DANIEL E. LECKRONE TO APPEAR AND SHOW CAUSE WHY THEY SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT

Andrew Fülöp, a creditor in the above-captioned bankruptcy case, hereby joins in TPL's Opposition to Motion of Creditors' Committee for Orders (1) Directing the appointment of a Chapter 11 Trustee; and Directing the Debtor and Daniel E Leckrone to appear and show cause why they should not be held in contempt for violation of the Court's Order. Andrew Fülöp opposes the appointment of a trustee in this case and prefers that TPL's management remain in place at least pending a vote on the plans of reorganization that have been proposed in the case.

Reasons for Opposition to Motion of Creditors' Committee for Orders include and are not limited to (1) appointment of the Trustee would be extremely disruptive to a very complex business; (2) my familiarity of TPL, of more than twenty years, believes that Daniel E. Leckrone and the current TPL and Alliacense team is more capable operating the company than the parties requesting a Trustee.
