

The Boone Family

Are we related to Daniel Boone? Well, we have several men named Daniel on our Boone family tree.

But are we related to the Daniel Boone? No.

Frontiersman Daniel Boone (1734-1820) is descended from an English family. Our Boone line can be traced to a German immigrant, Johann Diel Bohne (pronounced "boon" and spelled lots of different ways), who came to the Colonies in 1741 aboard the Marlborough. One of Johann's sons, Abraham, died in the 1820s, leaving his estate to two of his brothers. The family petitioned the courts to redistribute Abraham's estate among all his siblings. The court records of Rockingham County, Virginia, list Abraham's siblings who were party to the petition; if one of the siblings was deceased, that sibling's offspring were listed as heirs. Our Mary Boone Hoss (nee Anna Maria Bohne) is one of Abraham's deceased siblings, so Mary's children by Jacob Hoss are named—and their children, in the case of deceased Hoss children like Jacob Junior—in those Rockingham County court records.

Much of the Boone family information contained in this file is taken from the following source:

Nellie (Woods) Whedon. The German Bohne-Bohn-Boon-Boone Family: Descendants of Johann Diel Bohn/Boone of Maryland 1711-1764. ©1945. A copy of this manuscript is in the on-line library at www.genealogy.com

Mrs. Whedon is descended from Nicholas Boone, Johann's eldest son, who was the half-brother of the other Boone children listed here.

First Generation

1. Johann Diel Bohne was born in 1711 near Obermoschel, Pfalz, Palatine. He immigrated in 1741 to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Johann and his eldest son, Nicholas, came from Germany and arrived in Philadelphia in 1741 aboard the Marlborough. On 10 April 1750 he owned "Boon's Content" near Frizellburg, Carroll County, Maryland. On 16 September 1752 he owned "Shear Spring" in Carroll County, Maryland. On 10 October 1758 he owned "No Whiskey" in Carroll County, Maryland. He signed a will on 1 November 1761 in Frederick County, Maryland. He died before April 1764 in Frizellburg, Carroll County, Maryland. He was buried in the Boone Family Burial Ground, Carroll County, Maryland.

Translation of the Baptismal Certificate of Dewald Eberle.¹

To these two married people namely Johannes (John) Eberlo, and his wedded wife Margretha (one born Bohne) is a son born named Dewald Eberle and he is to the world born, in the year of our Lord Jesus 1781, the 26th day of September at 5 o'clock in the evening in the sign of the Ram, and because all people are conceived and born in sin according to the teaching of Christ, all children shall be brought to Jesus like (as) the Evangelist Mark described in the 10th chapter, verse 15, as it is written "Verily I say unto you, whoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein," through this Holy Christening is received into the Covenant of Grace of God by the Rev. Mr. Nicodemus this 26th day of December, 1781 and named as shown above.

Dewald Eberly is born and christened in America, State of Maryland, County of Frederick in Peiferickhundert. (Peiferick Hundred)

The parents were the witnesses to the Christening.

(Eberly later became Everly, and Dewald took the name of David, which is his name on his tombstone in Kreider Cemetery, Westminster, Maryland).

The original of the above was in German and was found in an old medical book, which was published at Frankfort am Main in 1603, by A. Leslye Buchen of Hanover, Pennsylvania. Mr. Buchen is a great grandson of David (Dewald above) Everly's sister, Margaret (Everly) Zurbuchen, later Buchen. David and Margaret were children of Margaret Bohne (pronounced Boone) by her second husband, John Everly. Her first husband was Leonard Pouder.

This Certificate was translated April 1943 and proves without question the unmarried name of Margaret (Bohne-Boone) Pouder-Everly.
