Numbers, Symbols & Words

Your Daily Warmup Puzzles

In bridge we manipulate puzzles involving numbers, symbols and words and strive for logical solutions (or at least inspired guesses). In each issue this week we will feature a pair of number/symbol puzzles, an easy one here on page two, and a harder one on the inside back cover; and, a word puzzle at the bottom of this page. In all of these puzzles, you will be able to solve them without guesswork, by logical deductions alone, which is what we're all trying to do at the table.

Today's puzzle is called Unruly. We start with a grid of squares, some with X or O in them. Your job is to fill in the rest of the grid with an X or O in each cell, such that:

- There are no three consecutive cells horizontally or vertically with the same symbol. (There will be instances of three or more consecutive diagonal cells with the same symbol.)
- Each complete row and column contains an equal number of Xs and Os.

		O		O	O

Word puzzles this week are from an app called Unolingo. It is a crossword without clues! There are exactly 26 blanks to fill in, and each letter of the alphabet fills one of the blanks. The puzzles are designed so that

A			S
				I	E	F		V
		R		E		W	A	V
A		E		L		E		I	T
R	E		T		U			S
I		U				H
U		L			W			T	H
	A		E		R	A		E
	E	E	P			E	N

A	B	C
D	E	F
G		H
I		J
K	L	M
N	O	P
Q		R
U	V	W
X	Y	Z

only common English words are used; there are no unfamiliar, arcane centuries-old words found only in crossword puzzles. You'll do best by looking for the locations of the hard letters first: QU, X, J. Be sure to mark off the letters used in the checking area beside the grid to keep track of your progress. It's not as difficult as it seems! I did most of these in 3-6 minutes.

A list of words in the puzzle (in alphabetical order) is on page 10. If you need a more limited hint, ask someone to examine the word list and tell you if the list contains, for example, a six-letter word starting with D and ending in E.

Opening Lead

Jan Galenza, tournament chair

Notes & Notables

Welcome to Victoria!

I should start by giving our visitors a friendly warning. At about 4pm today, many Canadian players will be sneaking looks at their smartphones during the final rounds of the afternoon session, and quite often during the evening session. Specific requirements for places to eat dinner between sessions may suddenly be introduced. A few inferences at the table may be missed thru inattention.

It's not a breaking news story, just that annual ritual that consumes Canadians every year at this time: the start of the National Hockey League playoffs. You can have your March Madness, we have April Angst and May Mayhem. This year a league realignment and some new rules has made the NHL playoffs resemble a bracketed knockout, except that you have to defeat your opponent four times to advance. Many hockey fans will be hoping their fantasy players do well. Here is what I wrote on our hockey pool's main page as the league organizer:

Good Luck All

Obviously, I want to be impartial

Can't, for example, do something like

Arranging the Announcement Message so letters

Nearest to the Left, when read

Upwards to Downwards,

Coincidentally and completely by accident

Killing any hope at impartiality

Spell out something that just might

Give offense to anyone who picked some

Other team in the pool

Some quick announcements:

Speakers Corner yesterday featured Debbie Wastle and today will feature Karen Billett, from about 6:20 to 6:40 or so. The talks are held in the back right of the playing area, beside the TournTables setup, which you should also visit. Results and Bulletins and even photos are being posted online in various places, all noted at this link: tinyurl.com/d19vic2015

Out of time, out of space: more tomorrow!

Tuesday Stockli Maytag Open Pairs

Victoria players win both strats in first all-day pairs!

Despite having similar records (DUNN went 7-20-12-18 and GROPP went 8-19-11-14), the two top teams never quite got matched together by the computer. Instead, DUNN's final round 18 VPs against SCHOLES allowed GROPP to take second by 1 VP!

Morning Side Game Series

Game 1 of 5: Tuesday Morning Side Game

Side Game Series? Here's how they work. There is a single-session, open side game alongside all sessions from Tuesday to Saturday. The five morning, five afternoon and five evening sessions are grouped together into a series. If you play in two or more games in the same series, you get a score for that series based on your best two game percentages, added together. If you played with different partners, that is OK, the side game series scores are on an individual basis. On Saturday, when the three series's end, the top individuals in each series will win some overall awards in gold points. We'll show you who is leading in each series beginning tomorrow, when there are two games completed in each series.

Unruly Hints

Unruly recap: Fill in the rest of the Xs and Os so that there are no horizontal or vertical three-in-a-rows (diagonal is OK), and so that the number of Xs and Os in each row and column is exactly equal.

Unruly hints: Look for pairs of adjacent Xs or Os and mark the opposite symbol on both ends. Look for X-blank-X or O-blank-O and mark the opposite symbol in the middle. When there are only two or three unmarked cells in a row or column, count the Xs and Os in the row or column. If one symbol already has half, fill in the rest with the other. If the remainder is 1-1 or 2-1 or even 3-1, often you will be able to see where the single must go to prevent a three-in-a-row from forming.

Now can you do the easy puzzle on page 2?

How about the more difficult one on this page?

Answers will appear in tomorrow's issue. DINO Recorder

The main role of the Recorder is to receive written information, complaints and suggestions by players about other players, tournament directors, tournament facilities and anything else directly related to bridge.

The Recorder's Duties:

- The Recorder keeps ongoing records of all grievances brought to his attention, the facts of which he is able to verify. Absolute confidentiality is observed.
- The Recorder has no punitive powers. If a hearing does take place, however, the Recorder's records may be made available to the Committee as evidence.
- The Recorder will review memos received and determine how the issue is to be acted upon. He may investigate to determine the facts and possible extenuating circumstances.
- The Recorder acts as an educator. Many players do not understand ethics and rules. The Recorder is able to help newer players, and others, become aware of each player's ethical responsibilities.

To report an incident to the District Recorder, obtain a Player Memo form from a Director. All Player Memos should be completed as fully as possible and returned to the Recorder or to a Director. The DINO Recorder is: David Binney, 1522 4th Ave N., Seattle, WA 98109. Phone: 206/354-3871. Email: dhbinney@comcast.net

I welcome news, stories, photos, interesting deals, and other material for Bridge On the Island, and I'll print as much as I can—from experts, intermediates, and novices alike. I will be available for photos of overall winners at various times, depending on how the overnight production of these Bulletins goes. Any win is important enough for a photo: no matter the bracket or strat. I should be available to take photos in the playing area each evening as play ends and at other times at “preduplication station” at the far end of the room.

Each edition of Bridge On the Island is posted online by breakfast time. There may be as many as three places where results are posted, and there is a separate spot for photos taken at the tournament. The District 19 web site d19.org used to be the hub for all of this online activity, but the untimely passing of Randy Corn last December has slowed the District site down a bit. For this tournament, I am posting and updating a page of links at this short URL:

tinyurl.com/d19vic2015

This one short internet address will give you one click access to all sites that are providing coverage for this tournament, explaining what each site offers and letting you know when things are posted. Bulletin links will be there as well for those who like to read the Daily Bulletin with breakfast!
