-December is HIV/AIDS Awareness Month-

Gumbo for the Soul Publications announces a new "Call for Submissions" and a new format for writers to note. Throughout the month of December, HIV/Aids Awareness Month, writers are invited to submit essays, poetry, affirmations, short stories on the subjects of living with HIV/AIDS, advocating for the cure and more for publishing consideration, in future publications.

What's new? The "Call for Submissions" is open December 1-31st only. Gone are the days of old when open calls lasted for several months. Writers, it's time to write and you have thirty-one days to get it done!

Writers' contributions will foster community, enlighten readers, empower individuals and motivate believers to have faith, focus and drive in any situation they encounter throughout life!

Submit your essay, poem, affirmation, short story - in 1,500 words or less - as a MS Word document in size 12 Times New Roman font, with a brief biography at the footer. Email AS AN ATTACHMENT with CFS-December 2011 in the subject line to gumboforthesoul@yahoo.com.

DO NOT INCLUDE YOUR SUBMISSION IN THE BODY OF THE EMAIL. GUIDELINES MUST BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO FOR PUBLICATION CONSIDERATION.
