

UNRESTRICTED

WARNING

Authority for release of this document to a foreign government does not have to be secured from anybody, especially the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2.

When this document is released to a foreign government, who cares? However, it is released subject to the following conditions: This information is furnished with the understanding that it most certainly could be released to another nation or even to an MVCC member without the specific approval of the United States of America, Department of the Army; that it damn well better be used for other than military purposes; that individual and corporation rights originating in this information are copyrighted and will be respected because the author needs the money; and that this information will most likely not be afforded anywhere near the same degree of security as afforded by the United States of America, Department of the Army.

UNRESTRICTED

TM 9-1808C

UNRESTRICTED*

WAR DEPARTMENT

TECHNICAL MANUAL

ORDNANCE MAINTENANCE

POWER TRAINS AND INTERCHANGES:
MILITARY/CIVILIAN TRUCKS
1941 TO 1971 (DODGE)

17 JULY 1981

Dissemination of unrestricted matter. — The information contained in unrestricted documents and the essential characteristics of unrestricted material may be given to any person known to be working on vehicles or equipment formerly in the service of the United States and to persons of undoubted loyalty and discretion who are cooperating with said work on former Government equipment and can also be communicated to the public and the press and to any authorized military public relations agency. (See also paragraphs 6a and 20a, TM 9-808, 31 January 1944.)*

This manual is a reprint of TM 9-1808C, 17 July 1981, and contains changes noted in C1, 31 August 1981, and C2, 13 February 1982, previously issued. No distribution of this manual will be made to individuals possessing the original publication (unless they buy it); however, C1 and C2 will be issued to said individuals upon request through proper channels.